Final Concert Of Season Scheduled Sunday Afternoon

Sunday, May 24, 3:30 p. m.—it's a date! Jot it down in your little book as the last opportunity to hear and see the 1952-53 Pahokee High School Band as it presents its final public concert in the high school auditorium.

It is always a musical treat to listen to one of Bandmaster Robert O. Lampi's Pahokee High School Bands wind up a successful season. This year's 13th anniversary concert is going to be something special. The maestro went all out in training this year's aggregation of musicians to the peak of perfection, and they have that extra polish in performance that won them a first place or "excellent" rating in all phases of the 1953 State Band Contest, without a dissenting vote from any of the judges.

The ten Seniors who will be playing for the last time in the PHS Band are Roberta Hatton, cornet; Lynn Shirley, oboe; Carolyn Scruggs, snare drums; Eleanor Walker, bass clarinet; Don Adams, trombone; Lewis Collins, drum; John Rogers, bass horn; Jimmy Rozelle, bass horn; Calvin Padgett, baritone horn; and George Scruggs, cornet.

Plans Dropped To Extend Limits

The proposed plan for the city to annex additional territory by extending the city limits has been abandoned for the present, according to an announcement by Councilman J. H. Wilkinson, Jr., at a call meeting of the Pahokee City Council Monday night. To persons attending the meeting to enter protest against the proposed plan, the announcement came as a complete surprise.

It was announced the municipal pool in the city park is being closed for a few days while undergoing repairs and improvements suggested by the State Board of Health. Bottom leaks are being plugged, the interior walls and bottom are being painted and a new chlorinating machine is being installed. Councilman Louis Mims was authorized to purchase the new chlorinating machine for the pool and also some additional scum gutter drains. Frank Thompson, city sanitation superintendent, was given the responsibility of making certain the pool is kept within the standards set up by the State Board of Health.

Named on a special committee to study the city's present zoning ordinance were Dan Carpenter, W. M. DuBose, V. L. Geiger, Duncan Padgett, Don Cole and Councilman Louis Mims and L. W. Meredith. ## LEGISLATIVE HAPPENINGS

— Session Of 1953 —

TALLAHASSEE — House and senate broke with tradition when they adopted their separate versions of the biennial general appropriation bill during the first month of the session. Now, with less than three weeks to go before final adjournment, the big money bill—providing funds for nearly all state operations and teacher pay—is under study in a conference committee made up of three members of each house.

Working through last weekend, the conferences made progress on the big job of resolving the differences between the two measures. But there were many difficult problems in the way of final agreement. One of the biggest involved public school financing. There was agreement in both houses and senate bills on a $350 increase for all teachers. However, the senate bill included an increase of $50 per teacher unit for "current expense," which is supposed to be used for educational facilities. This item, amounting in total to more than $2,300,000, was not in the house bill, which, however, did include $150 more per transportation unit which wasn't in the senate measure. There was no agreement late Saturday.

Chairman of the joint conference committee is Senator George Dayton of Dade City, who is chairman of the senate appropriation committee. Other members of the committee are Senators Edwin G. Fraser of Macclenny and Leroy Collins of Tallahassee, and Representatives James Moody of Hillsborough county, Dante Fascell of Dade and McFarland of Gadsden. Moody is chairman of the house appropriation committee.

Normally, in past sessions, the appropriation conference committee tee report has been just about the last business transacted in the biennial 60-day legislative session. Often adjournment sine die has been delayed in order to get the spending bill out of the way.

Rep. Volie Williams of Sanford and Senator El William Gautier of New Smyrna Beach introduced identical bills in the house and senate last week to rewrite the entire ad valorem tax system of Florida. One major change incorporated in the proposal would stop advertising of delinquent real estate taxes and issuance of tax certificates. Property on which taxes were not paid would be certified to the circuit clerk and held for two years unless redeemed. Then there would be an opportunity for an investor other than the owner of the property to pay up the taxes and obtain a tax deed. The owner could also redeem. The county would foreclose all unredeemed properties.

Sponsors say their measure would largely stop operations of so-called "tax sharks" who buy up certificates in order to obtain the substantial interest allowed or to get title to property with a small investment. They say it will be easier for the owner to redeem his property since he won't have interest added to his delinquency.

Probability is, however, that the result of enacting the $5-page bill into law would be unsatisfactory for the counties and cities, as well as for the delinquent property owners themselves.

The bill would allow a property owner to leave his taxes unpaid for two years without penalty, without risk of loss, and without the public knowing about his failure to carry his share of the burden of government. Counties and cities would lose revenue. Conscientious owners would have their real estate taxes increased to cover the share their neighbors were dodging.

Those who would like to buy certificates on the property—that is, pay up the taxes as an interest bearing investment—would not be permitted to do so until the expiration of two years. Even the tax shark could operate to better advantage under this bill. He could obtain a tax deed on property two years delinquent in situations where the owners, deprived of notice at the time his taxes became delinquent, finds the two-year delinquency more than he can meet.

Involved is a conflict of philosophies. Present law operates on the theory that the widest public notice should be given to tax delinquency in order to stamp it out. Success of this theory is indicated by the fact that there is surprisingly little realty delinquency in Florida today. There could be more under another system that doesn't let people know about delinquency until two years later.

Senate President Charley E. Johns at week's end appeared to be the key figure in the McCarty administration's effort to increase the tax on dog track gambling by $2,500,000 a year. Administration forces had pushed the measure through the house by a one-sided majority. Then a 14-member miscellaneous committee appointed by Johns in the senate killed it by a 9-5 vote.

The senate president, at odds with the administration, called the tax "punitive," offered a compromise to bring in $1,500,000. The governor said he would cut off about $400,000, and no more, from his recommendation.

Involved is approximately $1,000,000 more for the welfare program, $19,000 more for each county, each year.

The tracks say the bigger tax will strangle their operations. The administration offers figures to show the profits are huge, and points to the fact that the horse tracks under his bill would pay at the rate now proposed for the dogs.

This is the hottest issue in this legislative session. The debates in the senate, and the political implications, will reverberate through the state long after this session adjourns finally on June 5.

Cinematic Chatter

By Malcolm Millar

Hello everybody! Family tradition was tossed for a loss when Anna Maria Alberghetti was discovered by Hollywood. Back in her native Italy, family life—as in most European countries—centered around "Papa." Children remained (and still do) discreetly in the background as family considerations were accommodated to the father's career and routine. And so it was the Alberghetti's—Papa, director of the Milan Conservatory of Music; Mama, a concert pianist; kid sister, Carla; and younger brother, Paolo. Then, a couple of years ago, thirteen-year-old Anna Maria made her American concert debut as a singer at Carnegie Hall in New York. Her coloratura soprano was hailed by critics as "the voice of an angel." In the audience was a talent scout, who had arrived expecting to hear "just another child prodigy." By intermission, he was determined to add her name to the studio roster. Some weeks later, after an auspicious screen test and after protracted negotiations in two languages (English and Italian), the young girl had a long-term contract with Paramount Studios. Anna Maria's emergence as a Hollywood personality brought about a radical shift of emphasis in the Alberghetti family. Although Papa still makes the big decisions, most of the big decisions now concern Anna Maria. Meanwhile family life has become closely tied in with Anna Maria's Americanization. Not only does she share the benefits of her formal education with Mama and Papa, but she has introduced them to her pet form of amusement—going to the movies. See you at the movies—Mal.

PTA Gets Stung by a "Bee"

The local PTA is feeling sheepish today. Seems they complained the youngsters weren't learning enough. Said they couldn't even spell. So the kids challenged them to a spelling bee.

"I was captain of the PTA'sers," "Doc" Brown told me. "Both teams made the first round just fine. But on the second round Speedy Taylor went down on 'efficiency.' Then his boy Chip, who happened to be next on the school team, rattled it right off. From then on it was murder!"

So now "Doc" says that the whole PTA is thinking of signing up for night school!

From where I sit, it always pays to look and think before you leap to conclusions. Take those folks who would deny me a temperate glass of beer without a moment's thought. They wouldn't want me to interfere with their personal preferences for, say, buttermilk. It's a good idea to think twice before you "spell out" rules for your neighbor.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

HAPPENINGS IN THE LAKE OKEECHOBEE REGION

25 YEARS AGO

Lake Okeechobee is lower than in any period within the recollection of the oldest inhabitants of the upper Everglades. The gauge at the Canal Point spillway yesterday registered 12 feet and 9 inches as the elevation of the water above sea level. The outlets from the lake are closed, or are supposed to be closed as completely as practicable, and very little water is coming into the lake from Klismee river or any other streams, and under the influence of evaporation the lake probably will continue to go down.

Of the 28 solid cars of potatoes shipped this week from Belle Glade, most of them came from the Lake Delta Farms. Others came from the Brown Company Farms down Hillsboro canal.

With arrangements made to have Ritts's mail delivered from Clewiston, bids have been called for carrying mail to Kraemer Island from Pahokee. The bids will be received up to May 23.

Reconstruction of Conners Highway between 20-mile bend and Canal Point is underway, equipment having been moved onto the road Tuesday. The equipment consists of dragline machine, scarifier, roller and trucks. Material with which to raise the grade will be obtained from the bank of West Palm Beach canal east of the bend. Traffic will not be stopped while the work is underway.

W. H. Vann has arranged to forward 700 crates of eggplant north by boat from Miami. Homer Vivian acts to convey information between shippers and the boat lines.

Clewiston, May 15—More than 150 carloads of material has been delivered to the site of the new 1,500-ton a day sugar mill now under construction, it is announced by William G. Ames, consulting engineer for the Southern Sugar Company, in charge of mill construction. Several more trainloads of the heavy machinery is expected next week.

The number of cars of tomatoes shipped from the Belle Glade-Chosen and Canal Point - Pahokee districts in the eight days between May 9 and May 16 was 120.

Okeechobee News: Taxes have been reduced 33 per cent in Okeechobee county. Business is better here and in all parts of Fla. than it has been in fourteen months. Conservative estimates show that 1,000,000 automobiles from other states visited Florida during the season now closing. The cry that Florida was "bust" is proven untrue. Not a county defaulted its interest or bond payments, and only about six cities are behind with these payments. Bank deposits have increased. Orange prices have been higher than in years, while the movement and sale of cattle has been better than in a decade.

Johnnie Salvatore of Pahokee scored a comparatively easy victory over Peck Wright of Okeechobee in a four-round fight scheduled 8-round fight Wednesday night at the roof garden in Pahokee. The first and second rounds were even, with the third and fourth won by Salvatore with several knockdowns. The bell saved Wright on the count of nine in the fourth round but he failed to come out in the fifth. Rain prevented any other exhibitions.

R. M. Baker has installed two new machines at his store on Conners Highway—a Frigidaire and a Butter-Kist pop corn machine. The Frigidaire provides refrigeration for ice cream and similar delicacies and by using electric current it avoids the trouble of packing a box with ice from a delivery wagon. The pop corn machine is of the kind that is used in the largest cities.

With a sense of humor as well as public spirit, A. Kaltenbruner has had street signs put on that building of his which is across the street from his office. He owns the building that is known as the town hall, and on the front of it he has a sign that designates the thoroughfare as Main street. On the north side of the building is a sign that designates "Wall Street." Wall Street leads from the county road to the lake. Mr. Kaltenbruner has put up a neat frame building on the lake side of the town hall, and in that building is the office and workshop of an electrical service business and the law office of Elvin A. Bass.

W. P. Jernigan's dwelling house is in the hands of the painters, the carpenters and plumbing work having been finished. It is located two blocks east of the lake front and three blocks north of the canal, in a desirable location.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Adams of Port Mayaca and Mrs. W. A. Adams spent Wednesday in West Palm Beach.

Canal Point High School—Editor in Chief, Edward Jensen. Editor, 11th and 12th grade, Ina Mae Smith. Editor, 9th and 10th grade, Edna Jensen. Editor 7th and 8th grade, Elizabeth Stuckey.

Coach Langford's Black and Orange boys got revenge against Stuart Wednesday afternoon when they finished on the long end of a 10 to 8 verdict at Stuart. Canal Point really won the game in the first inning when they knocked the Stuart moundsmen out of the box and tallied five scores. From then on they had fairly smooth sailing. Coach Langford tried to have the game called in the seventh inning when it began getting dark and looked like rain but the Stuart coach insisted on nine innings so it had to be played out. The Stuart boys made their strongest bid for the game in the last inning when they got three men across the plate, largely due to a couple of rather serious errors. Guise registered 13 strikeouts, while the Stuart twirler only got three.

A set of books has been donated to the public school of Pahokee by the class of '28. The books are now at the home of Prof. A. J. York and Mrs. York will try to find some one to look after them this summer and give them out to the public to read.

John Thomas and Mrs. J. W. Barrett shopped Wednesday in the county seat.

Mrs. Joe Guerry spent a week with her father who is sick in West Palm Beach. She returned Sunday to her home in Pahokee.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley's little son, Jimmie, has been very sick. He is now a little better.

Mr. and Mrs. Inlow of the East Beach Bakery have moved into one of Calvin A. Shive's apartments. Mr. and Mrs. Revis moved into the other Monday. Mr. Shive has put electric lights in his garage apartments and dwelling house.

Mrs. R. Cone returned from West Palm Beach Friday, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Rose Brady.

Wallace Spooner moved last week to his new house in Kaltenbruner's addition.

Van Jackson York is getting along fine. He hopes to return from the hospital in West Palm Beach next week. His sister, Margaret spent several days with him last week in West Palm Beach.

Mrs. W. Akerman, vice president and Mrs. J. R. Poland, secretary of the Pahokee chapter of the League of Women Voters, and Miss Gladys Dowds, attended the convention of the League of Women Voters at West Palm Beach Wednesday. Regular meetings of the league are held in the Pahokee Theatre at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoons.

J. D. Bryan of Canal Point, who was born in Florida in 1850 and lived in Florida all his life, died Saturday at Immokalee at the home of his son Arthur with whom he was visiting. Death was due to cancer, with which he had been afflicted since 1917. The funeral was held Sunday and burial was made at Immokalee in accordance with the wish Mr. Bryan had expressed a few weeks before his death.

Christian Science Group Of Canal Point

The healing power of Soul, God, over all ills is emphasized in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "SOUL AND BODY" to be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday.

The Golden Text is from II Corinthians (3:18): "We all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord."

Bible selections include: "Then he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases" (Luke 11:1).

Readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "Like the great Exemplar, the healer should speak to disease as one having authority over it, leaving Soul to master the false evidences of the corporeal senses and to assert its claims over mortality and disease" (p. 395).

This means more money to you!

NOW YOUR U. S. SERIES E BONDS CAN EARN INTEREST
10 EXTRA YEARS

ALL YOU WISE and patriotic people who bought United States Series E Bonds ten years ago and have held them can benefit by this new law! For according to this law the bonds you expected to mature finally in 1952 can now continue to earn interest every year for ten more years—till 1962—without your even lifting a finger!

To get this extra money, there's absolutely nothing you have to do. Just hold your bonds and let them go on earning!

If you wish, you may still cash any Series E Bond at any time after you've owned it for sixty days. But you'll be better off to hold your bonds, just as you're better off to hold savings in any form.

First of all, as long as you don't cash your bonds, you don't have to pay income tax on the interest they earn. In the second place, cash in the pocket melts away fast—often with little or nothing to show for it. But cash in bond savings is always there—growing steadily toward the big sum which can buy something really worthwhile... And remember—the interest rate on Series E Bonds has been increased to 3% compounded semi-annually, when held to maturity.

So if you have bonds coming due, why not take advantage of your extra-income opportunity? Just sit back and let them go on making more money for you. And meanwhile keep adding to your cash savings by buying more U. S. Defense Bonds regularly—through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. It's the easy, systematic saving plan that's so helpful because it lets you save before you even draw your pay. Thousands on the Plan say it's the one sure way to save.

3 NEW MONEY-MAKING OPPORTUNITIES FOR YOU!

*New Series H, J, and K
Defense Bonds pay 2.76% to 3%!*

If you want to get the interest on your bonds in the form of current income, or if you want to invest more than the annual limit for E Bonds, ask at any Federal Reserve Bank or Branch about these new bonds:

SERIES H. A new current income bond, available in denominations of $500 to $100,000. Sold at par. Matures in 9 years 8 months and pays approximately 3% interest per annum if held to maturity. Interest paid semiannually by Treasury check. Annual limit, $20,000 maturity value. Issued only by Federal Reserve Banks and Branches and at the Treasury.

SERIES J. A new 12-year appreciation bond, available in denominations of $25 to $100,000. Sold at 72% of par value. Pays 2.76% compounded semiannually if held to maturity. Annual limit, $200,000 issue price jointly with Series K Bonds.

SERIES K. A new 12-year current-income bond in denominations of $500 to $100,000. Pays interest semiannually by Treasury check at the rate of 2.76% per annum. Sold at par. Annual limit, $200,000 issue price jointly with Series J Bonds.

NOW EVEN BETTER!
INVEST MORE IN DEFENSE BONDS!

Refreshment fit for a Queen is grapefruit juice, as Neva Jane Langley, Miss America for 1953, demonstrates here. ## Bankers Opposed To State's Plan To Buy 90 Day U.S. Notes

TALLAHASSEE—Florida bankers are opposed to the plan to put the state's surplus funds into 90 day U. S. Treasury notes. Surplus funds are now deposited in banks and draw 1 per cent interest. Proponents of the measure point out that U. S. notes are yielding 2.35 interest and that by converting surplus funds in these notes the state would gain considerable interest over what is now received.

Two banker legislators, Rep. John McFarlin of Jackson County and Elbert Stewart of Hendry County, expressed opposition to the bill when it went through committee. Senator Dill Clarke of Monticello, also a banker, opposes the measure.

The proposal is embodied in a bill by Rep. Turlington of Alachua and Rep. Dante Fascell of Dade.

COMMENCEMENT DATES

Commencement dates have been set for Pahokee and Belle Glade high schools. At Pahokee the date is June 5 and at Belle Glade it is June 3.

One Killed And One Hurt In Car Crash

Dead Man's Curve on SR15 between Pahokee and Belle Glade, scene of many fatal car accidents, claimed another victim Saturday night when M. J. Johnson, Sr., of Miami traveling south at a high rate of speed in a 1952 Chevrolet sedan was unable to make the curve, swerved across the center line, struck a 1950 Mercury coach driven by Raymond Semple of East Orange, N. J. and careened 120 feet before smashing up on the west side of the highway, according to PHP Trooper Chas. McWilliams, who investigated.

Johnson died before he could be taken from his wrecked car. Semple's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Semple of Newark, N. J., who were in the Mercury with him, were taken to the Everglades Memorial Hospital where Mrs. Semple was treated for multiple bruises and possible fractured ribs and Mr. Semple was released after emergency treatment for lacerations on the forehead.

WEBB IS CANDIDATE

TAMPA—Cecil M. Webb, president of the Dixie Lily Milling Company of Tampa, said he would be a candidate for Governor of Florida in 1956 provided a very close friend decided not to enter the race. He did not name the friend. "I have been asked by several groups to be a candidate," he said, "and will run if my friend is not a candidate." Webb is the former chairman of the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.
